Mercyhurst University | Freshman | Major: Hospitality Management

I am Freshman at Mercyhurst University in Erie, Pennsylvania. When I arrived at Mercyhurst University, I was going to major in Accounting with minor in Hospitality Management. I changed my major last semester to Hospitality Management with concentration in hotels. Last semester in the Fall of 2017, I struggled, but I am learning from my mistakes I made from the past and now I am striving academically. I have made some excellent friends here. This spring semester I am trying to improve my grades, do efficient studying to increase my studies by making study guides I make and quizzing myself. I have three A's in my courses right now this semester. My word this spring semester is determination. The determination is my key to success and everything I do and love. I have Autism Spectrum Disorder which is a type of learning differences, and I am also in the Autism Initiative at Mercyhurst University program. My Autism makes me unique individual and different, but I love who I am, and I am intelligent. The Cleveland CHUMS Scholarship is helping pay for my college tuition and books and various college fees that I have so that I can get my Bachelors Art's Degree in Hospitality Management with concentration in working in hotels. Working in hotels is my future after college, and I love meeting new people and sharing my gifts of happiness and positivity.
